To be eligible for DSAOC's Educator of the Year Award, nominations must be for an Orange County educator or education team. Nominations need to be mailed, faxed or hand-delivered no later than Monday, April 30, 2012 to the DSAOC Center. All nominees will receive a letter of recognition from DSAOC.

Please answer the questions below describing why you feel your student's educator or education team should be named Educator of the Year. You can attach supporting documentation to your nomination if you wish.

1. What is the role of the educator/education team and their relationship to the student with Down syndrome?

2. Why are you nominating this educator/team?

3. Please describe how the educator/team works with the student to modify curriculum, identify learning styles and keep him/her motivated to learn?

4. How has the student with Down syndrome specifically benefited from this educator/team?

5. Please share a story that illustrates why this educator/team is exemplary.

Thank you for your nomination! Please remember to mail, fax or hand-deliver your nomination to the DSAOC Center by Monday, April 30, 2012.
